

Environmental studies

1 - Systematic study of the incidences of the nuclear accident of Chernobyl on the Lebanese environment and the development of the adequate means of protection. Study carried out under the aegis of ministries for the interior and the public health in May 1986.

2 - Examination and study of the Italian chemical industrial waste stored mainly in unused quarries of Schnaniir - the Sahel Alma, and the harmful effects which these products present for environment. Study carried out on behalf of the ministries for the health of the interior and of justice, June 1988.

3 - Study of the sites of deposition of the tobacco refuse in the areas of Mar Chaya and AinSaadé and determination of the procedures to be applied and the conditions to respect to ensure environmental protection, June 1988.

4 - Systematic study of the products of dejection of the factories located in the areas of Chekka and of Selaata, as well as the means to apply to ensure the setting in conformity of these factories. Study carried out at the request of the Department of the Environment in April 1993.

5 - Systematic study on the quarries and their sites in Lebanon. Development of a national diagram of quarries presented in the shape of a chart at the 1/100000 including the potential resources and environmental constraints. Study carried out on behalf of the U.N.D.P. and of the ministry environment, March 1994.

6 - Study of the consecutive environmental incidences to the operations of dredging of sand to the broad Lebanese coast and ecological harmful effects caused by them. Study carried out with the request Department of the Environment in March 1994.

7 - Studies of conformity carried out at the request of the Department of the Environment on a certain number of quarries in Lebanon - 1994.

8 - Study of the influence of the urban development on the environment - Congress of Commodore, January 1997.

9 - Study of conformity concerning the National Cement factory with Chekka, carried out in collaboration with Dr. Pierre Malychef at the request of the commission of the environment and the public health of the Order of the Doctors - February 1997.

10 - Study and solution suggested for the dump of BourjHammoud, carried out in collaboration with Dr. Pierre Malychef at the request of the commission of the environment and the public health of the Order of the Doctors - February 1997.

11 - Study and solution suggested for the dump of Monteverdi, carried out in collaboration with Dr. Pierre Malychef at the request of the Department of the Environment - June 1997.

12 - Study of the incidences caused by the fill of the dimension of Northern Meten. Study carried out at the request of the NGO Lebanon and Department of the Environment green - October 1998.

13 - Study of environmental conformity of the Brakes factory, located at MazraatYachouh BF 870. Study carried out at the request of the court of the summary procedures in Metn. November 2005.